

Phelan Contest Calls SJSC Literary Talent

For the sixteenth year, San Jose State college students have the opportunity to enter the Phelan literary contest, the English department has announced. The contest is made possible by a $10,000 bequest of the late Senator James D. Phelan.

Senator Phelan was always deeply interested in poetry. Through this medium he became a close friend of the late Dr. Henry M. Bland, former California poet laureate and San Jose State college English professor. It was at the suggestion of Dr. Bland that the contest was originated to stimulate creative student writing.

Hold Spring Festival

In prewar years a spring festival was held at Montalvo, Phelan's Saratoga estate, at the end of each contest. Winners were invited to read their compositions and were crowned with flower wreaths by members of the English department faculty. In addition, a day-long program of dancing, singing and swimming was held. However, this practice was halted during the war and has not been resumed.

The contest is made up of six divisions: sonnet, lyric and free verse poetry, essay, short story and play. A first prize of $20, second prize of $13, and a third prize of $8 is offered in each division.

Any full-time student of San Jose State college under 30 years of age is eligible to enter the contest, rules state.

Must Be Typed

Contributions must be typed and double spaced. The name of the contestant and the title of his work should accompany each entry on a separate sheet of paper. Entries should be turned into the English office, room H28, before 5 p.m., April 8.

The English department reserves the right to refuse to award prizes in any or all divisions if the contributions submitted are not of sufficient quality to deserve a prize.

Rump Meeting

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—Herbert K. Phillips, University of Washington professor, ousted on charges he is a Communist party member, will speak tomorrow near the West gate of the University of California at noon.

Committee Plans Forthcoming Coed Recreation Night

Preliminary plans for the Co-ed Recreation night to be held March 11 in the Men's gym was the main topic of discussion at the Co-ed Recreation committee meeting last Wednesday, according to Rhoda Anderson, chairman.

Social dancing, folk dancing, volleyball, table games, and refreshments will be offered for the amusement of all students, the committee chairman said. Admission to the activities is free.

Other business included an outline of proposed activities to be presented at an afternoon barbecue and social night to be held April 5.

Next meeting of the committee will be Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 in the Little Theater.

KLOK Interviews Junior Students

Bob Custer, student announcer, will interview two members of the Junior class on radio station KLOK, tomorrow at 4 p.m., said Carl Holmberg, Junior Prom entertainment chairman, yesterday.

George Buehring, Junior Prom chairman, will be one of the interviewees and Kay Dewey, Junior class council member, will be the other.

Band Will Play New Orleans Jazz

King River-Bottom Mud and his original "Good Time and Pleasure Boys" will play for an after-game, after-revelries dance, tonight from 9-1 in the Women's gym, according to Marion Bell, chairman of the dance committee. The party is being sponsored by the junior class.

Governor Notes SJ Centennial Attendance Bid

Acknowledgment of an invitation for Governor Warren to address San Jose State college during the Centennial celebration was revealed at the Centennial committee meeting last Wednesday by Lowell C. Pratt, acting chairman.

The acknowledgment came from a secretary of the governor, who wrote that action was impossible at the present time, but hoped for speedy consideration by the governor, Pratt stated.

Addition of two committee members, Dr. William G. Sweeney, representing the Education department, and Rocci G. Pisano, Spardi Gras faculty adviser, was also announced by Pratt.

The finance committee, investigating available funds for the celebration of June 1-4, was enlarged by the appointments of Dr. Raymond Mosher and Dr. Carl D. Duncan.

Further reports of sub-committees were postponed until complete information can be obtained by the finance committee concerning available funds.

The next meeting of the Centennial committee will be March 9 in B-8 at 3:30 p.m.

ASB Class Election Today; 52 Vie For Student Posts

Fifty-two candidates for class and student body offices anxiously await the decisions of the Spartan electorate today.

The polls were scheduled to open at 9 a.m. this morning in the Student Union and will close at 4 o'clock. Only ASB card holders are eligible to vote.

Fourteen candidates made good on the Spartan Daily offer to run interviews. Brief biographies and platforms of the interviewees can be found on page four of today's issue.

Ardith Totten, Sophomore Art Major, Wins 'Miss Who' Prize Of Tickets to 'Right You Are'

'Miss Who'

Pat Friar

Ardith Totten, sophomore art major from San Jose, is winner of two free tickets to "Right You Are," forthcoming production of the Speech and Drama department, for correctly identifying "Miss Who."

The student who posed for "Miss Who" was Pat Friar. It was Miss Friar's hair style that gave Miss Totten the clue to her identity.

Miss Totten can obtain her two free tickets by calling at the Speech office.

Another picture will be placed on the campus' bulletin boards, and students will have another chance to guess who another "Miss Who" is, the Speech office said. Another two tickets to "Right You Are" will be given.

The idea of the contest is similar to the plot of the play and concerns an elusive person whom everyone knows but does not identify with the situation.

"Right You Are. (If You Think You Are)" Stars Jackson Young and Mrs. Evelyn McCurdy in the title roles.

The play was written by the Italian dramatist Luigi Pirandello.

Matmen Defeat Beaver Grapplers

Last night in the college gymnasium, the San Jose Spartan wrestling team met and defeated the Oregon State Beavers by a score of 15-14.

The best bout of the evening was between co-captain John Jackson, San Jose, and Tom Cutshell. Cutshell was behind 6-5 in the closing minutes, but picked up two points for top time and won 7-6.

Captain Pat Felice, San Jose, took top time in his match, and drew with Ray Southwall.

San Jose led 13-6 at the end of the fifth match.

Saturday Night Tickets Available

Tickets are still available for the closing performance of "How's It Goin'" according to Business Manager, Dick Cirigliano.

"We have had a sell out for the performances thus far," Cirigliano said, "but there are still a few tickets left for Saturday night's performance for those who did not have a chance to purchase tickets beforehand."

Because of the length of the performance, Director Ray Bishop said that some of the lesser scenes in the show have been cut, but that there has been no major change in the production.

Morgan Foils Gaucho Rebound Shot

Return Encounter Pits SB Gauchos Against San Jose Saturday Night

Despite Junior Morgan's heroic leap, depicted above, that robbed Gené Snyder of two points, Santa Barbara walloped San Jose State handily in their last game, 60-34.

Tomorrow night Spartan meets Gaucho once again in what may well be the deciding tilt of the CCAA championship.

If COP knocks over State tonight the race will be thrown wide open with Santa Barbara in line to tie it up with another win.

Revelries Dance Motif Follows Angelic Theme; Admission By ASB Card

Decorations at the Revelries dance tomorrow night will reflect the theme of "How's It Goin'," according to Barbara Rodenborn, dance chairman.

The Civic auditorium will be decked with large paper angels and crepe paper streamers. Scrolls, similar to diplomas, will bear comments pertaining to the Revelries show.

The dressy dance, which will begin at 9 p.m., is for couples.

The affair is free to ASB members. One student body card will admit a couple. Music for the evening will be provided by Wally Heider's orchestra. Heider is from San Francisco.

"Duke" Deras, entertainment chairman, promises that the music will be 'exceptional'. Any student who would like to request a song is asked to leave a note for Deras in the "D" box in the coop.

The Revelries dance is an annual affair sponsored by the student body and planned by the Social Affairs committee.

"The Revelries dance is one of the biggest student functions of the year," Miss Rodenborn said. "We expect a large crowd Saturday evening."

Patrons for the dance are Mr. Kenneth Coleman, Dean Helen Dimmick, Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, Dr. and Mrs. Barry, and Major Babel.

Joan O'Neil is chairman of the patrons committee.

Scholars To Meet To Elect Officers

The Society of Academic Scholars will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 1 of the art building for election of officers and adoption of a new constitution.

Dr. Richard H. C. Dieckmann, faculty adviser, released the names of two additional students yesterday who have met the society's requirements for membership. They are James Fortney and John Isaac.

Debaters to Hold 'Campus' Meeting

"Campus Meeting," modeled after the American Town Meeting of the Air, will be the form of the Student Speech forum to be presented Mar. 1 at 8 p.m. in the Morris Dailey auditorium, Mr. Wilbur F. Luick of the Speech department said yesterday.

The subject for the symposium-forum, which consists of speeches followed by a question period in which members of the audience participate, will be "Should The United States Adopt National Health Insurance?"

A panel of four speakers will discuss the pros and cons of the proposal for a federal plan, as well as alternate plans such as Governor Warren's proposal for California, and various voluntary plans.

The speakers will be selected from the two sections of Speech 2C being offered this quarter. Dr. L. H. Mouat and Mr. Luick teach the class sections.

Students from the classes in Speech 2B will attend, since the nature of the program correlates with work being done in persuasive speaking.

"All students are invited to 'Campus Meeting' to listen to the arguments for and against National Health Insurance and to join in the discussion concerning the best solution to the problem of providing medical care," Mr. Luick said.

SJS Graduate Holds Art Show At SF Galleries

The work of a San Jose State college graduate, J. Halley Cox, is being exhibited in a one-man show at the Gump Galleries in San Francisco, according to word received from Honolulu.

Thirty-two watercolors by Cox, many of them painted in the Hawaiian Islands, will be displayed at the San Francisco Art gallery through March 12.

The former Spartan is now teaching in the Art department of the University of Hawaii.

Both Cox and his wife, the former Carol Rohrer of San Jose, are graduates of San Jose State college. Cox was graduated in 1933. Mrs. Cox received her diploma in 1935.

The art teacher received his master's degree from the University of California, and joined the art staff there before going to Hawaii.

His water colors have been exhibited in various parts of the United States, and some of them have been reproduced in Fortune magazine.

Alpha Eta Rho Elects Tom Tanna

Tom Tanna was elected president of Alpha Eta Rho, aviation honorary fraternity, Monday night. He succeeds Mario Bonicelli at the stick for the group.

Other officers elected Monday include: Ken Raemsch, vice-president; Bill Ross, secretary; and Bob Moore, treasurer.

Juniors Name Final Judge For Prom Queen Contest

Miss Winifred West, personal shopper for Blum's, will be the third judge for the Junior Prom Queen contest, according to Carl Holmberg, chairman for the contest.

The other two judges are Miss Trula Hart, women's editor for radio station KEEN and George M. Downing, Junior Chamber of Commerce's "young man of the year."

The three judges will choose three girls from among the dancers on the floor. One girl will be picked as the queen and the other two will be the queen's attendants. Any ASB co-ed will be eligible.

"Jardin du Soir," the name of the Prom, will follow the French formal garden theme, and will be held Saturday, March 5 in the Civic auditorium from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Music will be furnished by Phil Bovero and his KGO Studio orchestra, and songster, Nadia Canon.

Bids currently are on sale in the Library Arch booth. Carl Ketchum, bid chairman urges all students to buy bids as soon as possible.

Juniors On Air

George Buehring, chairman for the Junior Prom, "Jardin du Soir", and Carl Holmberg, entertainment chairman, will be interviewed by Miss Trula Hart at 2 p.m. this afternoon on station KEEN, according to Carl Holmberg.

Judges Present Gifts to Queen At Jr. Prom

"Some of the prizes to be awarded to the queen of the Junior Prom have been chosen," said Carl Holmberg, chairman of the queen contest, yesterday.

Among the prizes are one top-ette jacket from Colman's, a dress from the Cotton Corner, blue blouse from the Hollywood Shop, cashmere short-sleeve sweater from Hoffman's, two-piece, green bathing suit from Stuart's, and a dress from Thelma Richardson's.

Other gifts include a strapless dress from Louana's, one pair of nylon hose from the Fashionette, one pair of loafers from Leed's, a pair of green shoes from Parlow-Keran's, and a red bag from Blum's.

Also to be given is an order for a portrait from Wing's studio. Flowers will be presented and will consist of a crownpiece, rose bouquet, and corsages. They will be given by the House of Flowers, said Holmberg.

Two one-year subscriptions to Lyncurgus will be awarded to the queen's two attendants.

The queen contest will take place at "Jardin du Soir," Junior Prom, March 5, in the Civic auditorium from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. At this time, a girl will be selected from among the dancers on the floor.

Dorm Slates Open House

Miss Norma Johnston, house president for winter quarter, will be in the receiving line for Pratt Hall's third annual open house Sunday. The college dormitory will be open to all students, faculty, and friends from 2 until 5 p.m.

At the tea table will be Mrs. Belle Moore, housemother, and Mrs. Pearl Hardisty, assistant housemother.

Assisting Miss Johnston in the receiving line will be council members for winter quarter. They are Misses Helen Simmons, vice-president; Joan Broadhead, treasurer, and Betty June Holt, secretary.

Also assisting will be Helen Ohm, upper division representative; Jacqueline Lazzeroni, upper division representative; Georgelyn Macdonald, lower division representative; and Marilyn Herrick, lower division representative.

Candidates Opinions

Sophomore Class

STEWART McCULLOUGH

Stewart McCullough, sophomore pre-legal major, feels that more intense investigation of questions coming before the Student Council is necessary and hopes to do something about it if he is elected sophomore council representative.

"It seems to me that the Council leaps into legislation without seeing what it is getting into too frequently. Intensive investigation can save time and trouble," he said.

McCullough served on the Student Council of Abraham Lincoln high school as a class representative. At present he is pledging SAE and is a member of Coach Ted Mumby's wrestling team.

LUCKY ROGERS

"Lucky" Rogers, pre-legal major and candidate for sophomore president, released the following statement to the Spartan Daily:

"I want to preserve the high standards now practiced by the sophomore class and hope to continue making it the best soph class that San Jose State has ever had. I have a few ideas that I think that I will improve some soph council procedures. No matter whom you vote for, all you sophomores be sure to vote today."

JOAN MICHELL

Joan Michell, who is running on the sophomore ballot for vice-president, expects to work for greater benefits for sophomore students.

"The class council should know what the students want before presenting them with anything," she explains.

Miss Michell was vice-president for the class of '47 at Livermore high school and also served as junior class representative on the Student Council there. She is pledging Alpha Chi Omega.

CHARLES ABILDGAARD

Charles Abildgaard, Sophomore class vice-presidential candidate, intends to work for more cooperation between the sophomore class and other organizations and more publicity for the class if he is elected.

"In addition," he says, "I'd like to increase the activities of the sophomore class. This quarter's Soph Hop was fine but activities should not stop there."

Abildgaard served as class president in his senior year at San Jose high school. He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma and SAE.

DOROTHY JOHNSON

"The sophomore class isn't so much in need of more activities as it is in need of activities that will draw more class members into active participation," says Dorothy Johnson, candidate for sophomore class secretary.

Miss Johnson is a general elementary major and member of the Social Affairs committee and Delta Zeta.

Freshman Class

CAROLYN HAFLEY

Carolyn Hafley held four class offices in high school, was secretary of the student body in high school, and has been on the fresh council since she has been on campus. For these reasons she feels that she has the proper background for a council representative. She is asking the freshman voters to elect her to the position of freshman representative to the Student Council.

"If elected," she said, "I will bring my past experience to bear, and try to represent the entire freshman class to the council."

Nominees State Ideas in Interviews

Senior Class

GEORGE LINK

George Link, a candidate for president of the senior class, feels that from his past experience he would be the best man for the job. He has served as publicity manager for the seniors, and as such has been close to the workings of the class.

Link was the business manager of the Spartan Daily last quarter, and has held executive positions in several on-campus fraternities.

He said that he is prepared to carry a minimum load in order to devote more time to class business. Also, in his duties as publicity director of the class, he came to know the class council well, and is sure that he will be able to work harmoniously with them.

"I'm sure you'll agree that I've proved I can hold responsible jobs," Link said.

BOB BARMETTLER

Bob Barmettler has as the main point in his campaign for president of the senior class, to make the seniors in the school aware that there is such a thing as the senior class. He feels that a spirit of class unity should be found among the seniors.

"After all," he said, "this is the last time in school for most of the members of the class, and I feel a spirit of genuine fellowship would reflect on the class and make it the best of the graduating classes."

Bob formerly lived in Napa and Modesto. In Modesto he was president of the high school student body.

Bob thinks that in order to get more of the class into school activities, class jobs should be spread out, and not confined to the select few as is the situation so often found in class government.

JOAN POLEK

Joan Polek is completing this quarter as senior class secretary, and has spent almost four years on class councils. As a candidate for treasurer of the senior class, Joan lists her qualifications as business manager of two co-op houses, in addition to working on the seniors' budget planning committee.

Joan says she would like to see the class come out all even financially on June 18, and to spend the treasury in the interests of the majority of graduating seniors. Miss Polek is a member of Black Masque, Spartan Spinners, and a commerce major.

Junior Class

BILL DUNLAVY

"We need to build up the class treasury for next year," Bill Dunlavy, candidate for junior class president, said. He also brought out that the 'esprit de corps' of class members should be brought to a higher level.

Bill has been active on the junior council, rally committee, WSSF, and the Student Y.

He feels that competent leadership is necessary in order to bring the juniors through the remaining two years of college with flying colors.

CARL HOLMBERG

Former wrestler Carl Holmberg, a candidate for junior class president, says he will build the class treasury if he is elected. Holmberg revealed that he feels the junior class is a "very co-operative group, and he would like to promote closer coordination between juniors and seniors."

Holmberg's activities include participation in junior council, publicity work for the class, and currently he is committee chairman handling work on the contest for junior prom queen. A member of Blue Key and the Spartan Daily sports staff, he said he "would consider it an honor to be president."

ALYCE LEONARD

Alyce Leonard, who is running for president of the junior class, feels that a larger class council would lead to a betterment of the class as a whole. There are many events on the class calendar, and a larger council will be necessary to take care of them, she says.

Alyce has been on the Rally committee, and the junior council here at San Jose. While at Glendale J.C., she organized that school's judicial committee.

She feels, above all, that the class needs to be organized into a smoother operating body, and that a better class spirit is needed.

ELWOOD DERAS

Elwood "Duke" Deras, who is running for the position of vice-president of the junior class, wants more student representation on the junior council. He is prepared to bring the opinions of class members to the council, thus representing the entire class, instead of the select few.

JOANNE O'NEIL

Joanne O'Neil, a candidate for secretary of the junior class, has been active on the junior council, and has been a member of the Social Affairs committee.

Joanne is an English major, and calls Bishop, Calif., her home town.

MARIAN BELL

Marian Bell, candidate for secretary of the junior class, is a social service major from Orange, Calif. She has been active on the junior council, in AWS, co-ed recreation, and is a member of the steering committee of WSSF.

BARBARA BARR

"I would like to continue the close cooperation between the Student Council and the junior class as a representative to the Council," Barbara Barr said yesterday. "Now is the time to get the juniors on solid ground as they go into their senior year, and the Student Council can help us a great deal with their experience," she said.

A transfer student last fall, Barbara has continued her interests here in the WSSF committee work, and reveals that she has attended Student Council meetings for experience and information to bring back to the junior class council.

SANDY WADLEIGH

M. J. "Sandy" Wadleigh, candidate for the office of junior justice, feels that he has the proper background for the job. He is a pre-legal major, and plans to get his law degree after graduation from this school.

Wadleigh has made a study of the ASB constitution and its by-laws, and has taken an interest in the workings of school government for several years. He has attended several colleges and has been in a position to observe the many different methods used.

He calls Riverside his home, and has lived in San Diego, and Milwaukee, where he attended high school.

JAMES TAYLOR

Jim Taylor, Business Administration major, feels that if he is elected Junior Justice he will be in a position to benefit San Jose

State college while gaining valuable experience for himself.

A graduate of Santa Cruz high school, Taylor served there as Student Body Vice-President, Junior Class president and commissioner of Boys' Athletics. At State he holds membership in SAE.

All excess is ill, but drunkenness is of the worst sort. It spoils health, dismounts the mind, and unmans men. It reveals secrets, is quarrelsome, lascivious, impudent, dangerous, and bad.

Spartans To Get Addition To Spartan Stadium Field House Facilities

The bumps, bruises, and strains sustained by the San Jose State college "Golden Raiders," otherwise known as the Spartan football team, will be well-cared for next year, opinioned Byron Bollinger, supervisor of buildings and grounds, recently.

With an eye to the future, especially the seven home games next year, college officials have obtained an addition to the stadium field house, the structure at the north end of the stadium.

Expected to be completed within two months, the new structure will add 80 feet to the field house, and will be used as a treatment room. It will contain a number of rubbing tables on one side of the room and taping tables on the other.

Lincoln T. Kimura has been hired as Chief Trainer to care for injured footballers in the new unit.

One of the features of the building will be the "stretcher ramp" and special doorway through which prone gridders may be easily carried.

Spartans Out to Clinch CCAA Title

Pasadena Cal Aggies Downed By SJ Mitmen

San Jose State's chances for a national championship boxing squad took a big jump upward last night as the Spartans trounced the previously unbeaten Cal Aggies and the PCC Bulldogs by 7-1 and 6-0 in Spartan gym.

Coach Dee Portal's Staters didn't lose a match on the 14-bout card. San Jose boxers scored 9 TKO's, took three decisions, and fought two draws.

Fontes In Draw

An overflow house boomed lustily when the Wayne Fontes, Don Brown battle was called a draw. Both boys, former Pacific Coast champs, fought on even terms in the first two rounds, but the fans thought Fontes' murderous body attack in the final stanza had secured him a victory. Both boys scaled 155 pounds.

San Jose's Mac Martinez, 125, and Aggie Bernard Callahan hooked up in a terrific, free swinging pier 6 brawl in the fourth bout of the evening with Martinez' vicious rights and lefts to the head earning him a TKO in the second round. Previously, Allan Shields of Pasadena City College, and Spartan Al Tafoya, also 125 pounders, had engaged in a rough and tumble battle that saw Tafoya grab a second round TKO over the lanky Bulldog.

Camp Wins First

Don Camp, 125, started the Spartans on the victory trail in the first match with a decision over Pasadena's Jerry Shup, San Jose's Mike Rivera then put Aggie Jerry Ringer on the hooks with a second round TKO. Rivera hit the wildly flailing Ringer with everything in the book in the first round, easily polished him off in the second.

Ring Results

125 POUNDS. Camp (SJS) dec. Shup (PCC), and Rivera (SJS) tko'd Ringer (CA). 130 POUNDS Tafoya (SJS) tko'd Shields (PCC) and Martinez (SJS) tko'd Callahan (CA). 135 POUNDS. Ratliff (SJS) tko'd Schoner (CA). 145 POUNDS. McDonald (SJS) drew with Tours (CA) due to a cut eye sustained by the Cal Aggie boxer in the first round. 155 POUNDS. Fontes (SJS) drew with Brown (CA), and DeSoto (SJS) tko'd Marcell (Pcc). 165 POUNDS. Faris (SJS) dec. Fry (PCC), and Diez (SJS) tko'd Watterson (CA). 175 POUNDS. Franusich (SJS) dec. Bond (CA), and Ross. (SJS) tko'd Blanton (PCC). HEAVYWEIGHT. Schaeffer (SJS) tko'd Libby (CA), and Scheberles (SJS) tko'd Rieseau (PCC).

CCAA Cage Crown At Stake In Tiger and Gaucho Tilts

Tigers

College of the Pacific's towering Tigers will be out for revenge tonight when they clash with Walt McPherson's title bound San Jose State cage crew in Spartan gym. Tipoff time is 8:15.

In the last meeting of the two clubs, the Tigers emerged on the short end of a 52-51 score. Bob Hagen's field goal and free throw in the waning seconds of the contest sank Pacific hopes. Tonight, with the Spartans needing but one victory to clinch the CCAA crown, and the visitors fresh from a 60-52 bludgeoning of the hapless Santa Clara Broncos, the game may well develop into a tight, down-to-the-wire thriller.

Pacific Has Height

The Tigers are tall—center Howie Pearce measuring 6 ft. 6½ in., and forward Bill Wirt topping the 6 ft. 4 in. mark, and are well stocked with talent. Wirt hit 17 against the Broncos and forward Phil Ortiz and guard Bud Proulx each netted 13. Proulx is an aggressive ball hawk and a deadly set shot. The rangy sophomore pivot man Pearce is a great rebounder.

C.O.P. ranks a notch above Fresno State in CCAA standings in third place. A win tonight could improve their position, depending on the outcome of the San Jose-Santa Barbara game tomorrow night. The Gauchos hold second spot in the conference.

Regulars Start

Coach McPherson will start his regular squad tonight consisting of Bob Hagen and Don McCaslin at forwards, Stu Inman at center, and Bob Wuesthoff and Ralph Romero at guards.

Big Junior Morgan sustained a pulled shoulder muscle yesterday, and may miss tonight's game. Morgan plays a terrific defensive game under the boards, and uses a hook shot to good advantage. The reserve pivot man's condition is uncertain, but if forced to remain on the sidelines, the Spartan defense will suffer.

The remainder of the squad is in good shape, and with a five day rest since the Santa Barbara defeat, should play top basketball. Center Stu Inman will aim to boost his school record of 440 points in tonight's encounter.

When a diplomat says yes, he means perhaps; when he says perhaps he means no; when he says no he is no diplomat.

Gauchos

Coach Walt McPherson's hoopsters have a triple incentive to win the regular season finale Saturday night when San Jose State engages Santa Barbara in a conference encounter.

Incentive number one is San Jose must down the Gauchos to qualify for the regional playoff to determine a representative in the NAIB tournament to be held in Kansas City. Providing the McPhersonmen hurdle Santa Barbara, the Spartans face Pepperdine or Loyola Wednesday night in Los Angeles.

After defeating Pepperdine in the playoff last year, San Jose went on to reach the quarter-finals of the NAIB tourney. In two meetings this season the Spartans and Waves have split a two game series. Loyola has been one of the powerhouses in coast cage circles, boasting a convincing record which includes triumphs over CCNY and University of Pittsburgh.

A big "IF" rests on the outcome of tonight's tussle between College of Pacific and the Washington Square crew. A gold and white victory would clinch CCAA honors outright, but a Tiger win would throw added emphasis on the Spartan-Gaucho clash. Santa Barbara is the lone remaining contender and still has a chance to deadlock the CCAA standings. Coach McPherson is sending his boys out to "lower the boom" in order to erase the Gaucho bid for a tie.

Revenge is the final incentive to spur San Jose on when Mr. Basketball bows out of the local sport picture. After 19 straight conference cage triumphs over a three-year span, the Spartans were rudely but politely dumped 60-34 by Santa Barbara last Saturday night in the southland.

Bob McCutcheon is the forward the McPhersonmen will have to stop Saturday. The sensational cager was high point man in the recent tilt with 24 points.

Divot Diggers Start Golfing Season Today

San Jose State's 1948 NCAA golf champions return to action today and Saturday when they hold ladder matches on the San Jose country club links.

The Spartans are missing Morgan Fottrell from the national title aggregation. Heading the group of returning veterans are Bob Harris, intercollegiate champ in '48, Ross Smith, 1948 captain, Eli Bariteau, Jr., Howard Verutti, and Warren MacCarty.

Eddie Duino, S.J. golf professional, is mentor of the Spartan linksmen.

Promising newcomers to the golf team are Jay Hopkins, recently medalist in the San Francisco city championships; Bill Ogden, three-time Sacramento city champ; and Joe Zarkarian, ace from Modesto via St. Mary's college.

Frosh Five Meets Cleaners Tonight

Coach Tom Cureton's frosh five will meet the favored Faultless Cleaners in the preliminary game Friday night in the Men's gym at 6:30.

The Cleaners boast a record of 13 wins and 5 losses, while the frosh have a 16 to 3 record. Normally the frosh would be favored, but with three first stringers, George Clark, Cliff Phelps and John Young out, the glow in the Spartababes future is darkened somewhat.
